Agenda Topic: Launch of AAA website

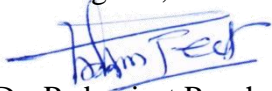

Minutes of meeting

The AIIMS Association for Anatomy (AAA) proudly announces the successful launch of its official website, marking a significant milestone in the organization's efforts to advance anatomical education, research, and collaboration among professionals across AIIMS institutes in India. The President of AAA, Dr. K.S. Ravi expressed pride and excitement: "The launch of this website is a significant step towards building a cohesive and collaborative community of anatomists. He said that the Pioneer association will not only enhance communication and cooperation among members but also support future initiatives like having our own journal and the much-anticipated inaugural conference at AIIMS Nagpur". The launch of the website was inaugurated by the chief guest, Dr. Shilpi Gupta Dixit Professor and Dean of AIIMS Jodhpur and esteemed Member of the Advisory Board of AAA society. She emphasized that this website is not just a digital platform but a significant milestone in uniting the anatomy community and advancing education and research. She highlighted the significance of the website in connecting anatomists across 26 AIIMS institutions and advancing anatomical education and research. She encouraged postgraduate students in anatomy to join the association, noting that this platform will provide opportunities for collaboration and knowledge-sharing. She also emphasized the importance of anatomy as the cornerstone of medical education, especially in surgical fields, and praised the efforts of the team in creating a website that rivals international standards. She concluded by expressing his gratitude for being part of this event and urged the careful maintenance of the website to ensure it remains a valuable resource for job vacancies, academic opportunities, and ongoing collaboration.

Dr. Ritu Sehgal, Professor at AIIMS Delhi and Vice President of AAA, praised the meticulous planning and execution of the website. She highlighted the importance of this platform in advancing anatomy education and fostering collaboration across AIIMS institutions. Dr. Sehgal commended Dr. Ravi and his team for their dedication and enthusiasm in bringing this vision to life. She expressed confidence in the website's potential to unify all AIIMS institutions, offering resources like job listings and academic contributions, and serving as a driving force for research and innovation in the field. She emphasized that the website will help elevate the AAA's mission and vision, and play a crucial role in keeping the AIIMS institutions at the forefront of medical education and research in India. Dr. Sehgal concluded by wishing the association continued success and congratulating everyone involved in the initiative.

On behalf of the AIIMS Association for Anatomy (AAA), Dr. Padamjeet Panchal expressed gratitude to Dr. Ritu Sehgal, Dr. K.S. Ravi, Dr. Shilpi Gupta Dixit, Dr. Sundip Charmode, and all AAA members for their invaluable support and contributions. The meeting closed with vote of thanks.
